Do you remember?

The Corner Stone could reach back into the past of alot of St. John's residences. I remember an afternoon observing The Wonderful Grand Band with Greg Malone and the Late Tommy Sexton in a room with zero insulation and hard chairs. In the past ten years fads have come and gone but the Corner stone has moved forward.

The Cornerstone Theatre was originally built in 1861 and after 124 years of history and great entertainment it still continues to be one of St. John's hottest venues. In celebrating The Cornerstones 10th Anniversary Doug Warren has added a large outdoor deck which will mean that the Cornerstones will become the perfect place for everyone to enjoy. During the month of June, Kelly Russell and friends will be performing on the deck and in the lounge Saturdays and Sundays from 3:00pm - 7:00pm. With the addition of the deck you can now enjoy the music while you relax outside in the summer sun. The deck will offer Barbecued food, Little Willy's polish sausage on a bun, cheese burgers, bacon cheese burgers, roast beef on a bun, Jumbo hotdogs, chili and whistle dogs. Over the years The Cornerstone has booked live jazz, blues, alternative, reggae and traditional music and continues to give it's customers the best entertainment that the city and the Mainland has to offer. The signal congratulates Doug Warren on 10 years of dedication in creating an establishment that has revitalized Downtown St. John's.

The Eagles are suing the Nashville Network for "the deliberate and wilful" use of their material on air without their permission. TNN have so far declined to make any comment. Among the copyrighted compositions allegedly aired without payment of synchronization fees are such songs as Hotel California, Heartache Tonight, Best of My Love and One of These Nights. Henley and Frey alleged the violations dates back as far as 1983 and possibly further. According to the lawsuit, the Network was notified my Henley in 1994 that the airings were in violation of the copyright act. The suit claims TNN has yet to stop airing the copyrighted material. The plaintiffs are seeking actual or statutory damages against the defendants.

Posters of Baywatch beauty Pamela Anderson in a swimsuit put up in Stockholm, Sweden, have been sprayed with a foul-smelling juice. It's believed the attack was carried out by anti-anorexia activist. A letter published in a Swedish newspaper on June 4, 1995, signed by Former Anorexics Fight Back, claim the posters "encourage anorexic attitudes in women toward food and their bodies in order to arouse men."

Rod Stewart and his wife Rachel Hunter plan to have another child to add to their family during the next year. Stewart reveals desperate for a baby daughter. He quips, "There is plenty of lead in the old pencil. And I only write to one person." The couple have two children, Renee and Liam.

Former Guns 'N' Roses drummer Steven Adler appeared in a Van Nuys, California court last week June 5 on drug charges. Adler is charged on counts of possession heroin and a syringe, and being under the influence. He has been free on bail since being arrested on April 20. Police were called after Adler was spotted slumped over the wheel of his parked car outside his Los Angeles home.

Kurt Cobain's suicide has apparently inspired the deaths of nine young Lebanese who killed themselves in a death cult. The alarm was given last month after Muwafek Shreif, 16, was found shot dead in his bedroom. Michael Murr, the Interior Minister, called a meeting of security and justice officials to examine the suicide of eight other young people between the ages of 16 and 24. Muwafek Shreif the son of a well-to-do family who went to a leading private school in Beirut was an avid fan of Nirvana. Investigators are now trying to track down other Nirvana fans to prevent further suicides.

The Rolling Stones are to play in a car park the end of their world Voodoo Lounge tour. The Stones are to perform the gig for their tour supporter Volkswagen at their international headquarters in Wolfsburg, Germany. The concert on August 25 is being seen as a bonus to Volkswagen, who were insulted when Mick Jagger last week distanced himself from their product. Asked what he thought of VW cars he replied, "I drive a Mercedes myself."

Pink Floyd have landed an enlightening way of selling their new double CD version of their classic The Dark Side of The Moon album. The disc has a constantly flashing light set in its spine. The group's frontman David Gilmour explains, "Its tied in nicely to the heart-beat that begins the Dark Side of The Moon." It also helps you to find the CD on a dark evening when you've got your lights turned down low."

David Bowie has been collaborating with Trent Reznor from Nine Inch Nails and the pair are set to co-headline a Lollapalozza -style tour. Bowie will embark on the tour prior to the release of his latest album, Outside, due in september. Other acts tipped to appear on the tour include Porno for Pyros, Bush and Bjork.

Gloria Estefan has won a four-year battle against a New York-based salsa pianist who accused her of plagiarism. Eddie Palmieri claimed Estefan's OYE MI CANTO stole its chorus from one of his earlier recordings. Estefan and her attorneys have announced Palmieri dropped the suit after the investigation proved the song had roots in traditional Afro-Caribbean folkloric music.

Astrology Bay

by Terry Butler

Aries: Full moon in your travel signs means you'll be feeling like taking a trip, most likely a short distance adventure. Communications with brothers and sisters will and should improve. Career matters can be resolved with co-operation. You may be called to assist a co-worker and wonderlust beckons you to a much needed break. When dreams at dawn awaken you, get motivated.

Taurus: Venus in money signs says you'll feel like purchasing something of beauty. Mercury indicates that you'll be paid for past endeavours. Young people will plan a major role in your happiness and mars in virgo with uranus in the other earth sign capricorn indicate improved romantic affairs.

Gemini: All signs are a go after the 17th. Sun in cancer after the 21st says you'll be rewarded for your efforts financially and your attitude towards others will improve. Someone encourages you to take part in a sporty or unusual event. Jupiter in your 7th sign indicates legal or professional matters need attention. Someone with more expertise may be rendered.

Cancer: Prepare for two weeks of subconscious ideas coming to the fore. Avoid negative escapism and the propensity to spend time wastefully. The full moon on the 13th indicates a romantic tie may act a little unpredictable. Avoid doubt and place trust where it is needed.

Leo: Mars in Virgo your money sign says you'll feel generous and the tendency will be to spend. Don't empty your pockets unless your heart is there and others are really appreciative. Friendships improve with Mercury directly on the 17th. A friend may have romantic interest after venus goes in Gemini on the following Sunday. You may have to fight affection coming from a secret admirer.

Virgo: Be prepared to avoid those who wish to take advantage of your good nature. Money problems will arise latter this month so watch your spending.

Friends and family are behind you with regards to career matters. Sometimes it's easier to keep quiet than to spill the beans on a co-worker. Watch who you talk to at work, that person is not as honest as he appears.

Libra: Love matters still are taking their toll with Saturn in your love sign Pisces, however the sun in cancer after the 21st should improve matters. The sun shines literally on your career and a real boost will come from a co-worker. Venus in air sign Gemini lightens your attitude and brightens your social affairs dramatically. Mars in Virgo may bring a few bad dreams but it's only hidden jeans coming to the fore.

Scorpio: Taurus in venus has brought you closer to a real true love affair with the one you want to spend time with. Judge your fears for commitment on reliability, is that person really there when you need them. Mars in your friendship sign says falling outs can occur. Mercury in Gemini directly says a loan is forth coming to or from you. Saturn in pisces says don't be stagnant. Get outside of yourself and see your ideas for what they are.

Sagittarius: The full moon on the 13th brightens your image. Buy a new item for your wardrobe and look the part you feel. Go with the flow, be spontaneous.

Capricorn: Full moon in your sign of behind the scenes house says a secret will be asked to be kept, shared or leaked out. This may depend on your opportunity at hand. Friends are there for you in the long run but judge yourself accordingly. Being Mr. Nice guy isn't always the best approach, especially if there are feelings on the line. With the sun going from your work house to relationships, you will be called on to be a leader in both worlds, at home and in the office.

Aquarius: Watch out for someone who is trying to put ideas into your head. Don't be to stubborn or evasive with this person. Your disposable income will improve but there is a rainy day ahead to prepare for. Wear the colors and clothes you want to, others will take notice.

Pisces: Back to your normal routine after the full moon. The things that plague you are only self directed. You feel like you've been in a horse race. Pat yourself on the back even if you feel like you've finished second. The full moon in your career sign says that you'll be in the spotlight, be your usual discreet self. Answer only what you feel like unless you really have to.
